

http://www.artoftheprint.com/artistpages/leff\_rita\_darkform.htm

Artist: Leff, Rita (New York, born, 1907)

Rita Leff: A twentieth century American painter and printmaker, Rita Leff studied under Louis Schanker, Abraham Rattner and Adja Yunkers at the Art Students League, New York, the Brooklyn Museum School of Art and at Parsons School of Design. She began to exhibit her art in 1950 with the Brooklyn Society of Artists. Later she exhibited with the Audubon Artists (1955-58), the Boston Printmakers (1954), the Society of American Graphic Arts (1954), the Village Art Center and the National Association of Women Artists.

Since 1971 Rita Leff has lived and worked in West Palm Beach, Florida. She is a full member of the Audubon Artists, the National Association of Women Artists and the Society of American Graphic Artists. Her original prints and paintings are included in the collections of such major institutions as the Library of Congress, Washington, DC, the University of Maine, Pennsylvania State University and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

Note: The artist biography has been written and designed by Greg & Connie Peters exclusively for "www.artoftheprint.com". Check our site periodically for new additions. There are new biographies and works of art for sale posted on a regular basis. We hope you found the information you required and that it has been beneficial.

---

ART OF THE PRINT

Customer inquiries: Contact us at (4art@artoftheprint.com) or phone Greg & Connie (905) 957-6666.

www.artoftheprint.com - Home | About Us | Artist Index | Gallery | Catalogue | Our Policy | Contact Us
| Site Map